

Dinner Theatre Package Starting at $259 per couple

Based on double occupancy, plus tax & gratuity

Stageloft Repertory Theater Show

Stageloft Theater is a live small theater, located on 450A Main Street in Sturbridge. It has been bringing quality theater to central Massachusetts since 1995. A variety of plays and musicals are performed each year by professional and talented ensemble casts. The theater offers air-conditioning, handicap accessibility, unobstructed views, and theater-style seating. Check their website for details of plays, performance dates, and times at www.stageloft.com or call our lodging desk for show dates and times.

Publick House Overnight Accommodations

Through the years, this historical destination has grown into a landmark in Sturbridge, Massachusetts, offering two charming restaurants that boast a dining experience from an era that has long passed. We have 115 guest rooms with your choice of three lodging facilities, all in a historical setting with private baths and air conditioning. Be sure to visit our Bake Shoppe, a real 18th century bakery, where irresistible things come out of our Yankee ovens. On a beautiful day, you can enjoy your morning coffee and fresh baked pastries on our picturesque patio.

Dinner & Breakfast in our Historic Tap Room

Surrounded by the original post n' beam ceilings and rustic wide plank floors from 1771, join us in our Historic Tap Room for a hearty dinner & breakfast with the comfort of our Yankee hospitality. Our magnificent six-foot open hearth fireplace is the centerpiece of the Tap Room that will warm you as it did our early American ancestors.

